- 1. Upon further consideration, initial search and review, the multitude of possible combinations of genes presented in the claims, namely Claims 3, 4, is deemed a burden on the examiner. This is a supplemental restriction requirement to require applicant to elect a single combination of genes for examination.
- 2. Applicants have elected Group I, and cancelled previously set forth Group II.
 - Claims 1-15, drawn to a method for comparing methylation profiles using nucleic acids, classified in class 435, subclass 6.

Restriction Requirement Applicable to All Groups Requiring more than one Patentably Distinct Gene:

SEQUENCE RESTRICTION REQUIREMENT

Additionally, each group named above is subject to further restriction. Each group detailed above reads on patentably distinct combinations of genes. Each gene is patentably distinct because they are unrelated sequences, i.e. these sequences are unrelated because the protein encoded by these sequences differ in structure and in function and in biological activity.

For the claims drawn to a combination of genes, namely one or more genes. A restriction is applied to each Group. As provided in MPEP 803.04, "Applicants will be required to select one combination for examination." The selected combination will be searched and examined. A combination may be as few as a single gene or as many genes as the combination of all the recited genes. Applicant is required to specifically indicate the single combination desired. All combinations containing the allowable genes will be rejoined and allowed. Rejoinder will be permitted for claims requiring any allowable sequence(s). Any claims which have been restricted and nonselected and which are limited to the allowable sequence(s) will be rejoined and examined.

For an elected group drawn to an nucleic acid sequence, the applicant must further elect a nucleic acid sequence or a SPECIFIC combination of nucleic acid sequence.

Applicant is further required to distinctly point out the location in the drawings, figures, or SEQ IDS of the instant application to which the elected sequence is drawn. Please include in the selection of a sequence or specific combination of sequence the SEQ ID(s), the Genebank numbers) (or any other identifier), the table or figure number, and the row or column location in the table.

This is NOT an election of species. Nucleotide sequences encoding different proteins are structurally distinct chemical compounds and are unrelated to one another. These sequences are thus deemed to normally constitute independent and distinct inventions within the meaning of 35 U.S.C. 121. Absent evidence to the contrary, each such nucleotide sequences are presumed to represent an independent and distinct invention, subject to restriction requirement pursuant to 35 USC 121 and 37 CFR 1.141. By statute, "[i]f two or more independent and distinct inventions are claimed in one application, the Commissioner may require the application to be restricted to one of the inventions." 35 U.S.C. 121. Pursuant to this statute, the rules provide that '[l]f two or more independent and distinct inventions are claimed in a single application, the examiner in his action shall require the applicant... to elect that invention to which his claim shall be restricted." 37 CFR 1.142 (a). See also 37 CFR 1.141(a). It is noted that searching more than one of the claimed patentably distinct sequences represents a serious burden for the office.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the nucleic acids and/or combinations of nucleic acids are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evident or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variant or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other inventions.

- 3. A telephone call was made to Tanya Arenson on February 23, 2006 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.
- 4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
- 5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
